MARRIAGE T O D A Y

Peace is God's will for your home. But for you to access that peace, you have to know the institutor of the institution you are in, or about to get into and also know the principles of making it work and enjoyable. If not the abuse is inevitable.

(Heb3:13) says marriage is honourable to all, marriage is essentially design to bring you honour, not shame, pains and frustration. To enjoy the fullness of it, you need to follow the principles of the one who design it.

When you buy an electronics, the first thing you do is to properly read the manual, to enable the proper use of that electronics.

You can not use devil' principles to enter into God' institution.

You need a proper use of God's manual to enjoy marriage.

The God kind of Love

Love is one of the major requirement of making your relationship with your spouse work. To love your spouse is not a suggestion but a commandment by God. The sweetness in your marriage will so turn sore, without the love of God in your home. But when you start to love your spouse the way God loves, the honey will last a life time. God's kind of love is selfless and unconditional. If you can not change your mother. Why then do you want to change your spouse? We all accept our parents the way they are.

Why do men change their wives? When they can not change their mother? No matter the character of your mother, she remains your mother.

Angels

can help locate your spouse

Him & Her

After God brought my husband to my life as a friend, I still did not know my prayer had being answered. I woke up one morning at about 5am, I prayed and release my angels to the corners of the earth, to help search and bring my God ordain husband my way. Two hours later my phone rang and it was Daniel, as at that time we had lost contact. He no longer lives in Nigeria. He told me he had woken up early that morning searching for a document. And in the process located his old diary and found my number there. We were reconnected that day and got married not too long after then. My angel travelled all the way from Africa to England to wake up my husband to located an old diary, so we can be reconnected. Every human being has an angel assign to him or her to carry out their duties, if you do not use them, they will be unutilised. Its biblical see (Heb 1:14)

There is your desire in

God do not just create a partner for you, but the one that will suit you. Someone of the same kind with you. Remember the scripture we discuss in (Gen 7:2) God said of every clean beast bring a male and his female and every beast that is not clean a male and his female. Note God did not say bring one clean beast and one unclean and make them husband and wife. Also in (Gen2:18 kjv) And the Lord God said is not good for a man to be alone, I will make him helper comparable to him. The word comparable means suitable, befitting, some one of the same kind. God knows you, he know what you like, and he created your desire in marriage.

Before I got married as a young girl, I was already aware of this fact, so I wrote at the back of my bible, every thing I wanted in my husband. Indeed God gave me exactly my heart desire.

THERE IS A SPOUSE FOR YOU

God specifically design a man for every woman and woman for every man. (Gen 7:2) says of every clean beast thou shall take to thee by seven, a man and his female. Note the bible did not just say a man and female rather a man and his female. In that passage God was referring to animals. If God could create a wife or a husband for animals, there is sure a spouse for you. See also (Mark10:6-7 1cor 7:1-2) From the beginning of the creation, God made them male and female, and for this reason shall a man leave his father and mother and cleave to his wife.

This are other scriptures were it clearly stated that, there are spouse for every person.

The moment God gave me this understanding as a young single girl, I started praying daily for God to supernaturally connect me to the man I was created for. I will release my angels in prayer to help search and bring him my way and the same year, i met my husband. God brought him to my life as a friend. Six year later we started courtship and got married two years after.

I was about 18 years of age when i stated praying this prayer. As you start praying for divine networking to your own spouse, God will grant you divine speed in Jesus Name. You are not created to be alone, there is a partner for you.

Attitude is everything

Attitude is an important factor in building a successful relationship. Your personality is discovered by your attitude itself. So attitude is the primary qualification for any person to successfully attracts, build and keep a relationship. your attitude says everything about you to others, and inform them how you will treat them. While considering a relationship or in one already, the key of making it work is your attitude.

5 Keys to rekindle Love in Marriage Relationship

1. Know that Communication is the key.

Communication is vital in any great relationship. To talk things over on a regular basis is the root of a great relationship, taking in what each other has to say and supporting each other in a loving way. Communicating bring about intimacy. It's the back bone of every fruitful relationship. The more Communication is practice, the better you get.

2. Don't forget Romance

Don't let the romance die in your relationship. Know the things that your partner loves, and put them first in your decision making. They will really value you for it. Traditional ideas like sending flowers, kissing your partner when they are least expecting it, cooking a favorite meal never go out of fashion.

3. Make Sex a central part of your relationship

Sex is an important part of keeping a relationship healthy, as it brings us together on an emotional, physical and spiritual level. Take the time to let your partner know what you want, but also listen to what their needs are and come up with ways where you can improve your sex life

4. Keep your spouse first in your life

Being in a healthy relationship is all about putting the relationship first in your life. When you and your partner are committed to making your relationship the number one priority above anything else in your life, then your relationship will go from strength to strength. This may seem little difficult when children are involve but make it a point of duty to put you relationship first

5. Have fun together

Having fun together is a great way of bringing you closer and developing a strong bond between you and your spouse. When was the last time you spent time doing things that made you laugh together? Make some time today to enjoy together.

Adultery

Ritard Destiny

Adultery strip you of honour and bring a permanent reproach on destiny, it retard you mentally, spiritual and eventually destroy the body in death (prov 6 22)says for the account of a harlot a man is brought to a piece of bread, and adulteress will hunt for the precious life. Can a man take up fire in his bosom, and his cloths will not be burnt? Can one go into a hurt coal and his feet not burnt? So is he that goeth into his neighbour wife. who so ever committed adultery with a woman lack understanding, and destroy his own soul. wounds and dishonour shall he get, and his reproach shall not be wipe away. Stolen water is sweet, bread eaten in secret is pleasant, but he does not knows that dead are there, that her guests are in depth of hell.

It takes foolishness to be involve in the act of adultery, save your life from destruction. Avoid companies of friends were you will easily be tempted.

There is no special woman or man anywhere, its all about packaging. If you see any man or woman you think is special, go back home and repackage your spouse.

Living a Life without Scars

The fear of God does not disvalue, it enhances your value. The fear of God make you to know God's secrets and as a result brings about excellence in all you do.(Ps 25:14) it will make you win when others are failing.

If you play away today, you will morn away tomorrow. If you do not face the truth now, the excitement of today can become sorrow tomorrow. Let the fear of God take root in your heart. Decease from satanic relationship that could sell off your destiny. Decease from the fun of fornication and your tomorrow will be beautiful.

Fear God and work with God's word because its the only true answer to the questions of life. It is God that determine your worth, and your worth determines your values and your values determines what you become.

Do not play away with your today, so you will not morn away tomorrow. Joseph is a good example, of how the fear of God can enhance value in life. He refuse to do evil in (Gen 39:9) and in the next two chapters in (Gen 41:39). he was enthroned

Most young men of this days, would have see having Potiphar's wife as jackpot of life. And this will in no time tame their destiny and eventually end their life. The fear of God prolong life, its all you need to live a life without scars
